We Dedicate . . .

To the newly organized Lake Central High School of Madison, South Dakota. we dedicate our 1964 Interlakes. The voters found it necessary to form the new school when Beadle High School, a combined grade school-high school used by G.B.S.T.C. for teacher training purposes, went up in smoke January 19, 1963. Students of Beadle received their classroom instruction in the old Madison Community Hospital.

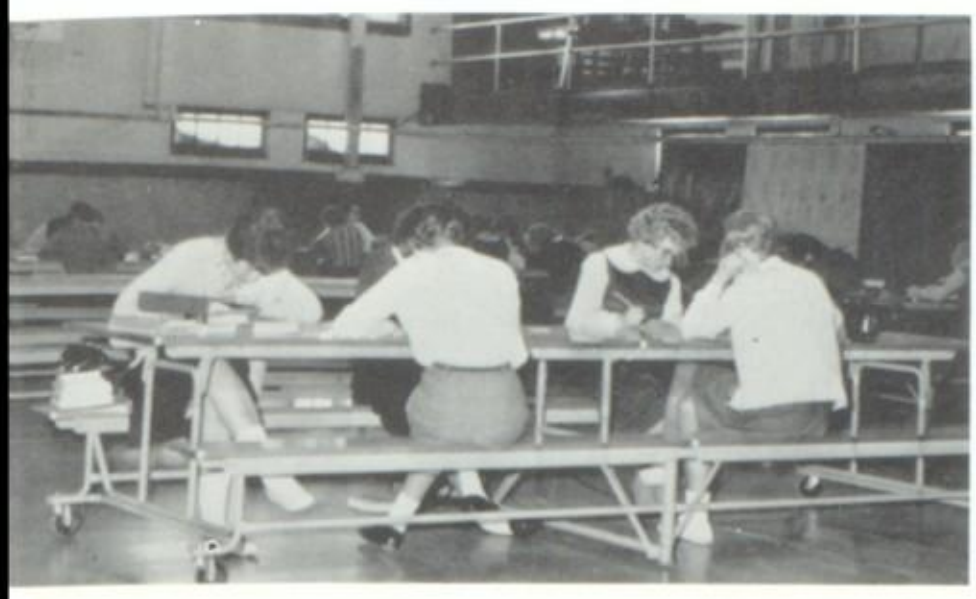
After reorganizing the school districts in the summer of 1963, the students of the former Beadle High merged with the students of Central as one school, increasing the enrollment from 330 to 480.

Students watch sadly as Beadle High School burns to the ground.

The citizens of the Madison area realized the desperate need for a larger, better high school. On December 10, 1963, a $1.3 million school bond was passed with 71% of the votes cast. The new high school, located by the new General Beadle College Armory, is expected to be completed by fall, 1965.

The architect's plans for the new Madison Central High show a modern, well equipped institution of learning.

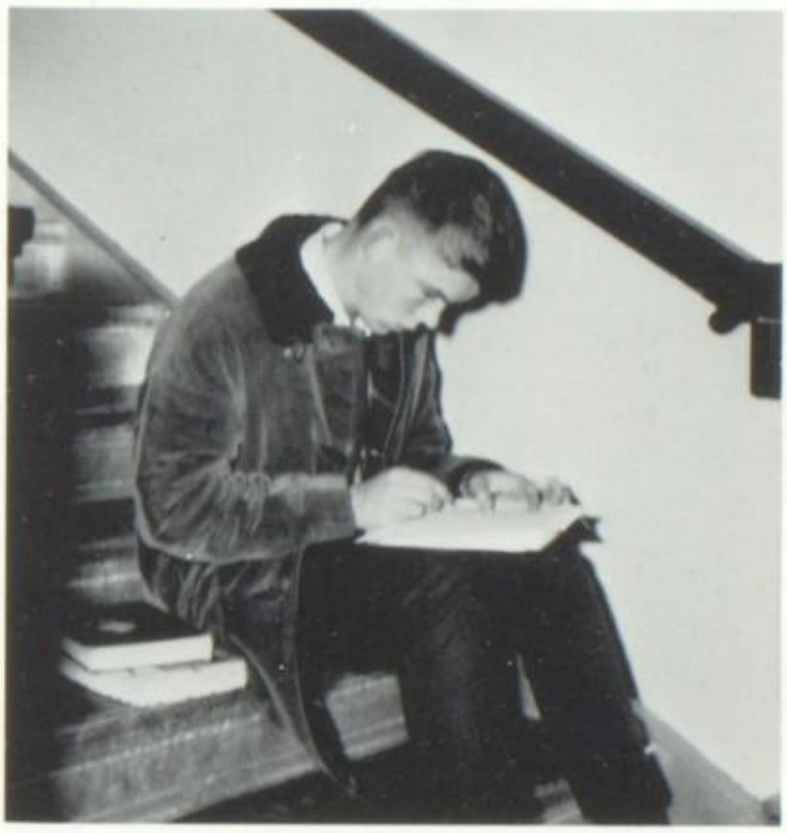
Tables were a new addition to the gymnasium during the noon hour. These multi-purpose tables served as cafeteria tables, study desks, and props for table tennis boards.



Vending machines served as a cafeteria for hungry students and teachers. For a small amount, milk, pastry, sandwiches, cold drinks, candy, and hot soups were made available.

An enlarged student enrollment increased the size and variety of classes.

The balcony of the auditorium was converted into two classrooms by building partitions. Those classrooms proved satisfactory except for the thin walls.



Crowded halls and classrooms forced the scholars of MHS to seek any available study space.

Crowded halls posed a special problem for the students.

Rewarding Twelve Years

Instead of having a Valedictorian and Salutatorian, MHS honors the top ten students of the graduating class for their scholastic achievements. This year the top honor students were, back row, left to right: Tom Sogaard, Eileen Preuss, Mary Fors, Ronnie Scovill. Third row: Jane Johnson, Marlene Myromoe, Kendra Erickson. Second row: Mary Palm, Diane Cockle, Susan Rentz. First row: Pam Hanlon, Sharon Lunt, Kathi Stodolski, and Principal Mr. Southmayd.

Through Student Council We Govern Ourselves

Gordon Johnson, the first Student Body President of our newly formed Lake Central High School, has done a successful job in fulfilling his duties. He has helped to get more senior privileges and has helped to fulfill many of the students' wishes. In his Junior year, Gordon attended Boys' State, which gave him experience in carrying out governmental procedures. He has also been an honor student. During his four years at Central, he has participated in basketball, football and track.

Activities

Reminiscing Through

Co-editors of the Interlakes, Eileen Preuss and Betty Schladweiler, worked hard with their advisor Mr. James Peschong to turn out an annual that records memories of the school year.

The Activities section was put together by, left to right, Kathi Stodolski, Betty Van Den Hemel, Kendra Erickson, Suzette Beyer, Joyce DeGroot, and Bonnie Robson. These girls were in charge of making layouts for such activities as athletics, music, and organizations.

Special Events, including Homecoming, Follies, and the Prom, were immortalized by Jeanie Van Den Hemel, Gay Lynn Johnson, Diane Cockle, and Susan Rentz.

A very important job, the class section, was well done by Peggy Foley, Patty Krueger, Angie Thompson, Kathy Nesheim, Barb Remes, Pam Kachel, and Marcy Draper.

Absorbed in their work is the Faculty Section of the Annual Staff. Standing is Jill Vreyens, sitting are Kathy Rush, Karen Neville, and Marlene Myrmoe.

Mary Fors, Candy Reilly, and Karen Hanneman busily type as their part in annual Staff.

The very busy photographers are Ronnie Roberts and Darrel Killion, who have done a fine job for us this year.

Finally, my chance to do the experiment came. I remember that I charged into the chem lab full blast that day, ready to neutralize any acid, or prepare any base, or, well, I thought I was ready for just about anything! I guess that's what I get for thinging. I whipped on my glamorous, black lab apron, and set to work getting out the equipment. My lab partner and I hauled out equipment and more equipment, and even more! It seemed the list would never end! "Oh, yes," I thought, "it's going to be a great experiment!"

After twenty minutes of deliberation, and twisting of bottles, beakers, Bunsen burners, tubes, flasks, rubber hoses, and stoppers, we had

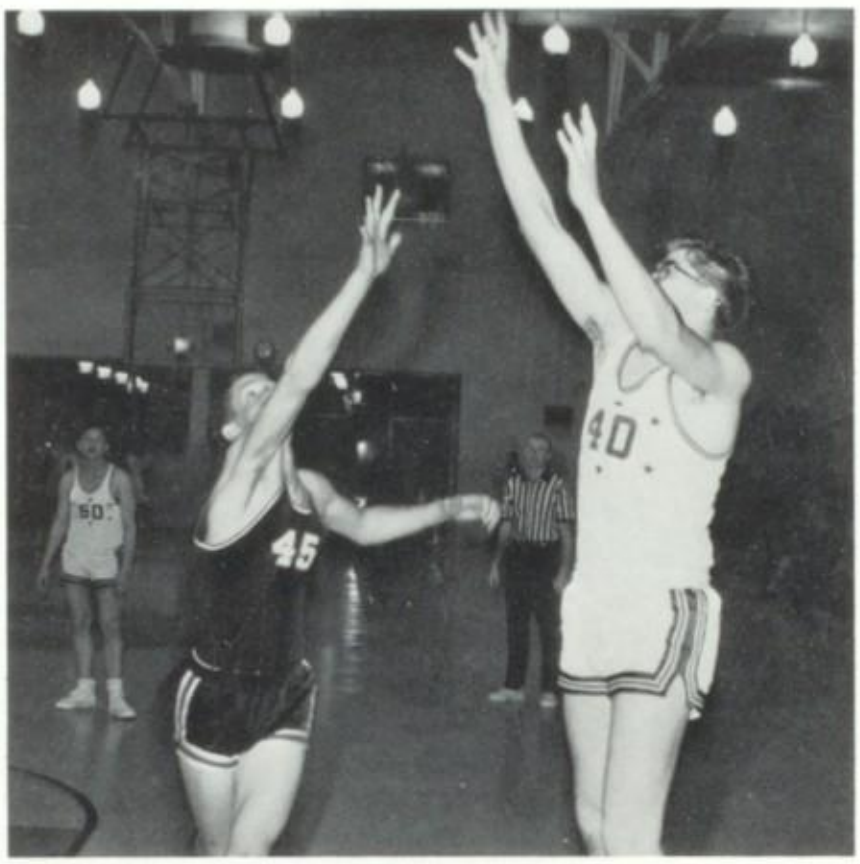
The "B" team struggles to control the rebound. It's a "toss-up" as to who will end up with the ball.



As the Bullpups make a basket two points are added to the score.

"Beat, Beat, Beat that other team!" is the familiar cry of the Bullpups' cheerleaders—l to r—Karen Neville, Mary Hilde, Janet Crane, Jill Vreyens.

The opposing centers jump high as they try to gain possession of the ball.

Free throws have helped many a team to victory. Here Russell Johnson tries for a point for the Bulldogs.

Loyalty Encourages

Loyal we'll ever be
Madison High School.
We'll praise and honor thee,
Alma Mater dear.

May glory and fame be yours
Wherever you may go.
We'll love you, yes, we'll cheer you.
M.H.S.

Always calm and collected, Tom Orton prepares to sink a charity throw.

Do we see a possible foul? No one notices as all eyes are on Tom Orton, trying for two points.

Russell Johnson heaves a sigh and gets ready to shoot. Other Bulldogs in the picture are Jim Appelwick and Tom Orton.

Gary Bruns looks pained as he attempts a shot. Those arms seem to be in his way!

Jim Appelwick releases the ball and scores two points for Madison.

Bulldogs to Win

M.H.S. has always been proud of its basketball teams. Although we didn't make it to the top of the E.S.D., we fought bravely and won our share. Few teams that beat the fighting Bulldogs racked up impressive victories.

School spirit and loyalty prevailed throughout the season, and the entire student body supported and encouraged the team.

Lonnie Ihler adds two points for the "B" team Bullpups as Larry Meehan and Dennis Paul, also of the Bullpups, look on.

"Fun and Frolic" is the keynote of MHS "B" games. Here several members of the visiting team do a swan dance.

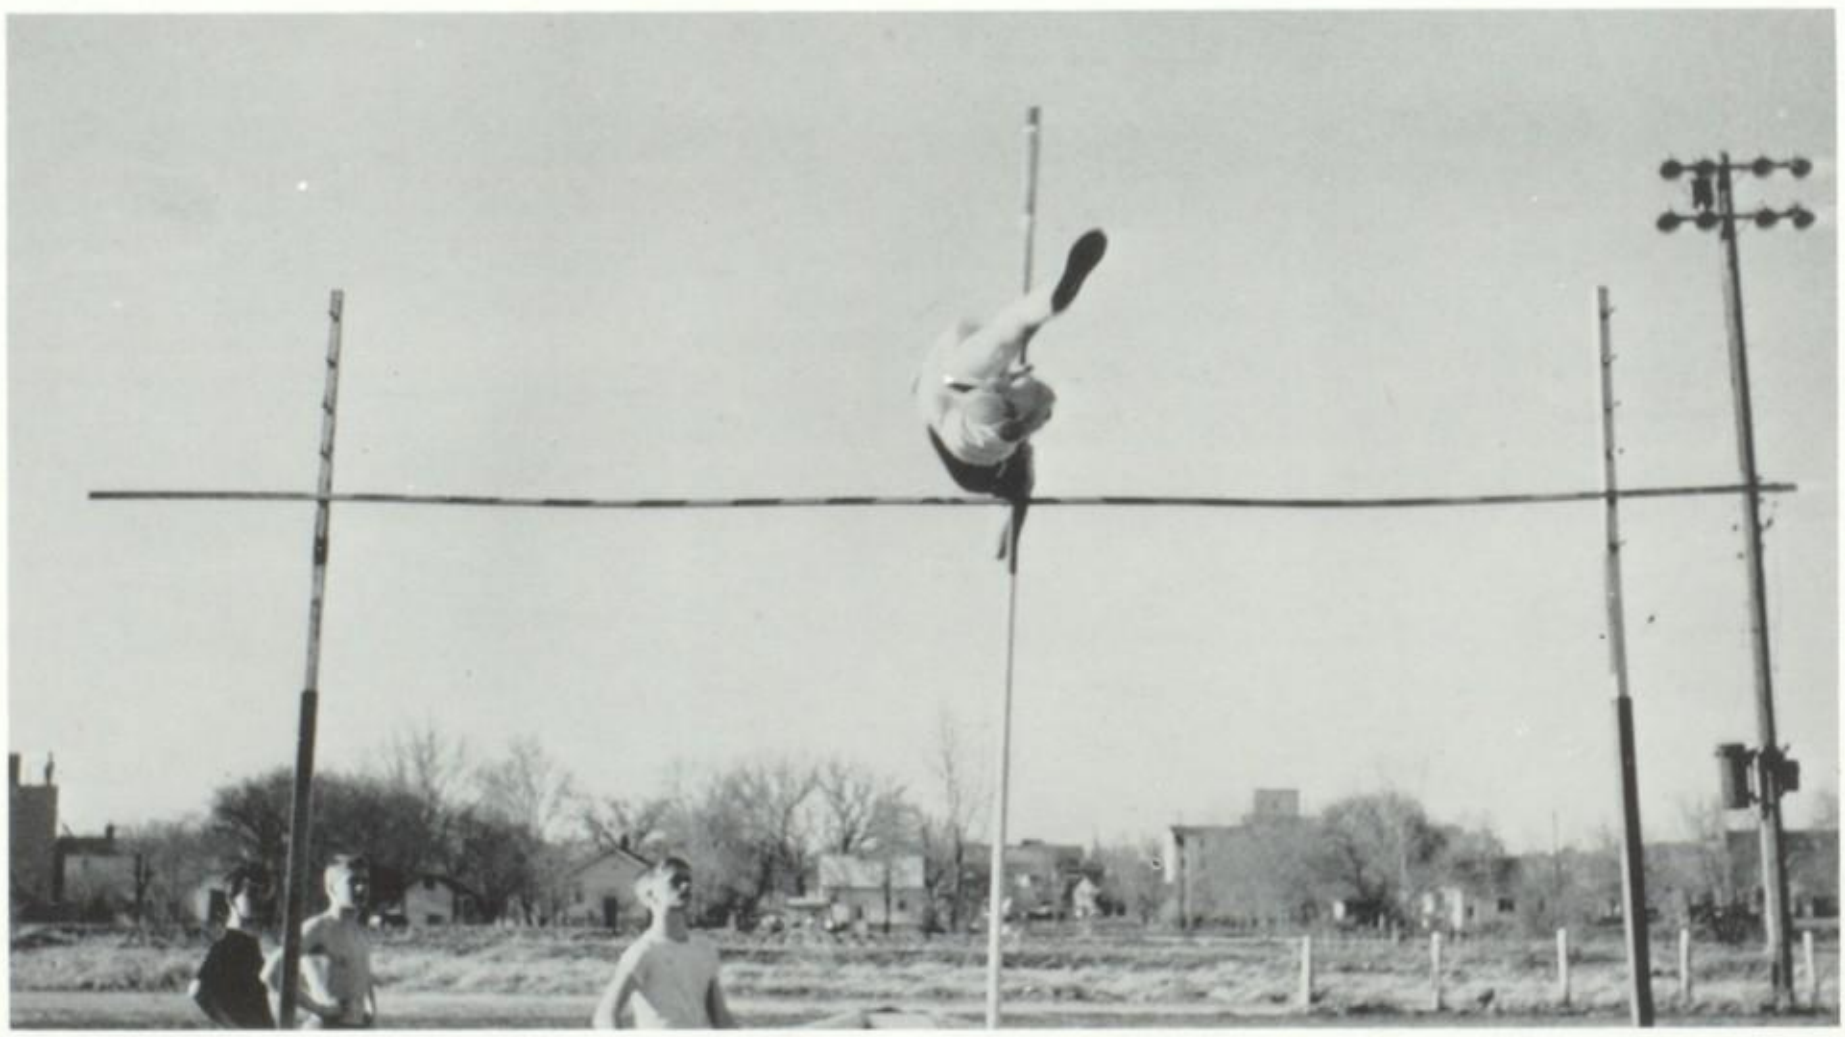
Somewhere in the air is that basketball! The boys seem to see it, although it is lost to the crowd.

Jim "Apple" Appelwick displays his free-throw technique. His stance may seem odd, but who cares as long as he makes it!

Tony DeGroot seems puzzled as he takes the ball out of bounds for Madison.

Speedy Bulldogs

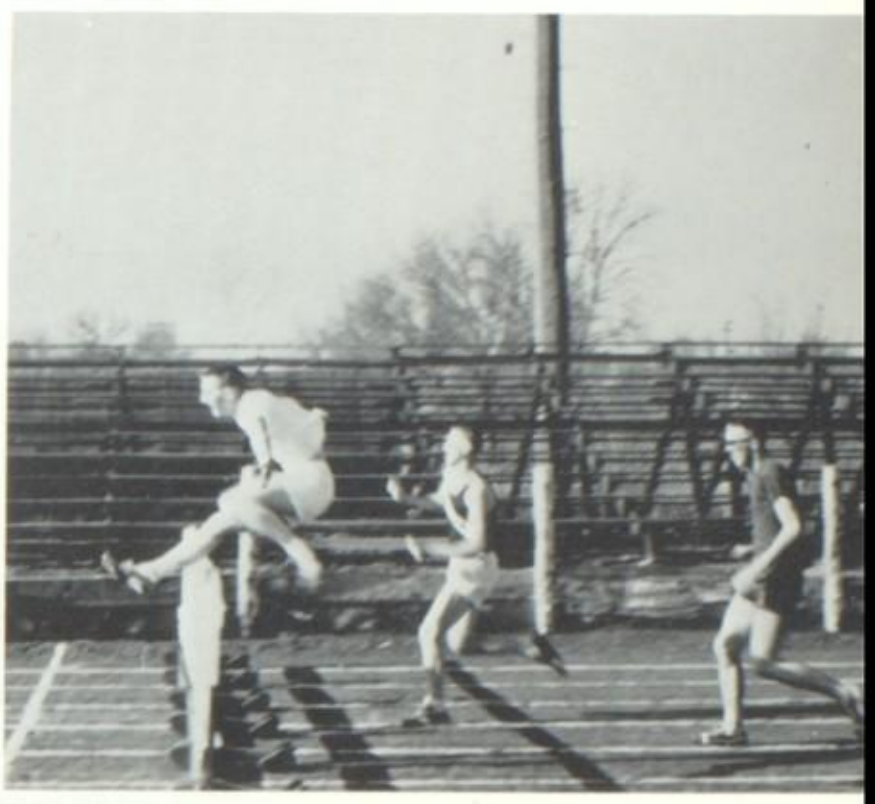
Tony De Groot runs wildly toward the finish line to score a victory for the Madison track team. Onlookers wait anxiously for those extra points.



Here, one of the many Madison track stars is earnestly working to break the pole-vaulting record for M.H.S. during one of the practices. Several records have been broken during the track season.

Race to Victory

Track this year has influenced a larger number of boys to participate in the activities of the track team. The different sections of competition include the hurdles, shot-put, relays, pole-vaulting and disc throwing. The track team has taken part in many different events in the towns that are part of the Eastern South Dakota Conference. Victories are determined by the number of points won by the boys in each event.



The boys, upon displaying their talent of jumping the hurdles, were able to win their first track meet of the season at Flandreau.

Track season opens for M.H.S. as soon as the snow disappears and the weather warms up. The Bulldogs busily practice in preparation for their up coming track meet. Alton Koistinen is shown here running the "440."

Small Groups Rate High

The cornet trio, consisting of Kendra Erickson, Sandra Cole, and Karen Hof, entertained many audiences with their rendition of "Bugler's Holiday."

Beth Jensen, Barnara Nightser, Mary Palm, and Pam Olson, playing the alto clarinet, clarinet, and bass clarinet respectively, formed the standard clarinet quartet. They received a superior rating in the high school music contest.

Jeryl Lindstrom led the band to many victories during her three years as Drum Majorette for the Maroon Band.

Those who received superior ratings for solos in the music contest were, left to right: Barbara Nightser, clarinet; Judy Bohl, flute; Mary Lou Olson, cornet; and Mary Bies, clarinet.

Madison Central hosted its College Days in November, 1963. Many area high school juniors and seniors attended the three forty-minute sessions.

The representative from South Dakota State University in Brookings pointed out the advantages of his college.

Boys who were interested in a trade school learned much from the representative of Dunwoody Institute.

Presentation School of Nursing of Sioux Falls was represented at Madison's College Day.

Many boys who were thinking seriously of joining a service, attended the Air Force session of College Day.

Special Events

Homecoming

Homecoming is eagerly anticipated each year by the students of Central.

Two weeks before Homecoming Day, work is begun by each homeroom on floats for the parade.

The night before Homecoming, the identity of the King and Queen is revealed. The coronation is followed

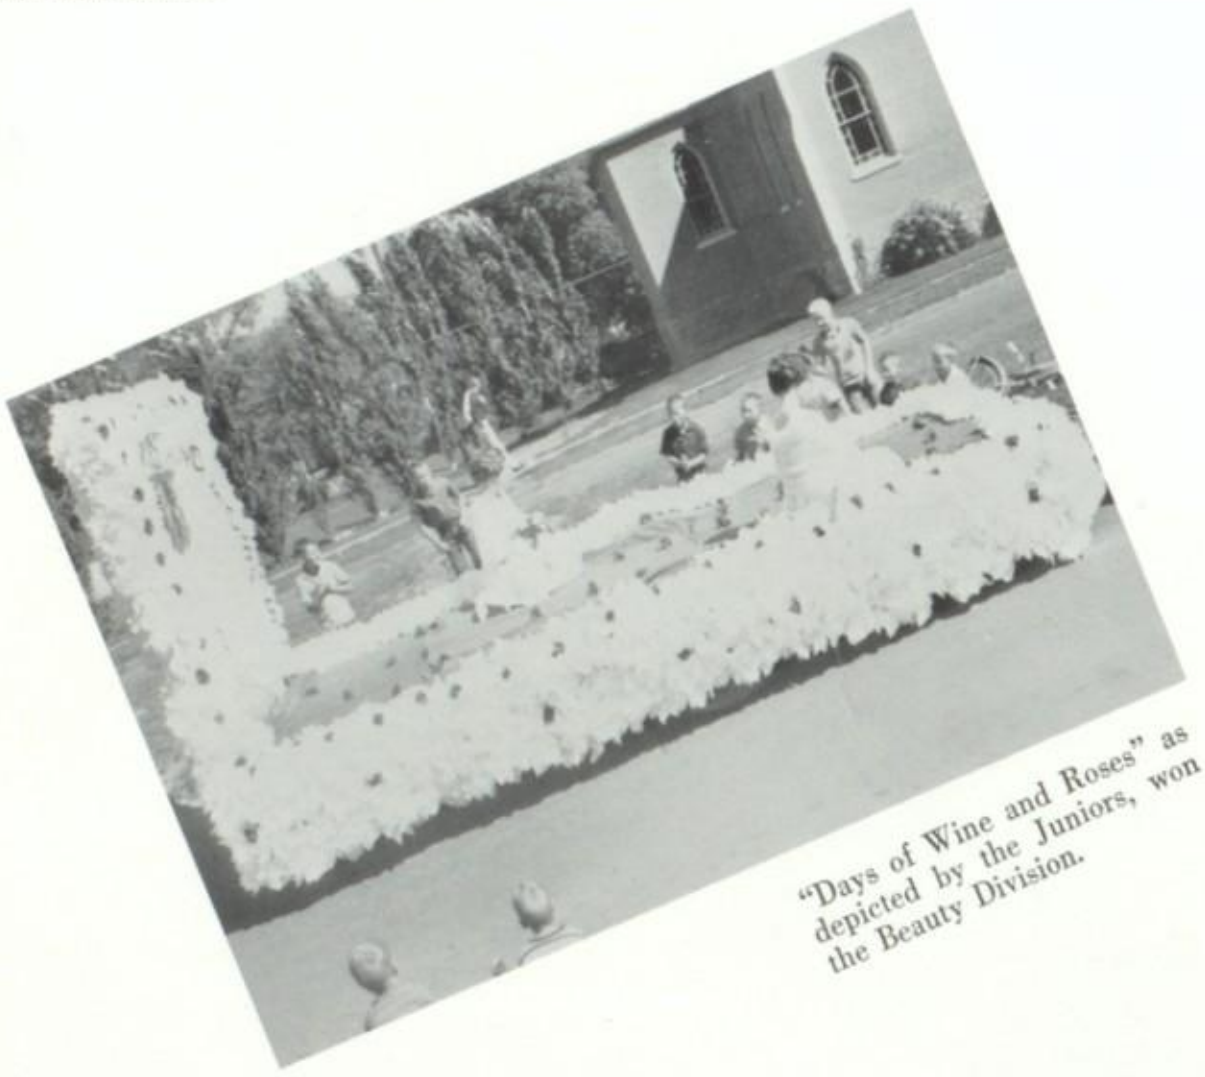
"Turning over a New Leaf," depicting the merger of Beadle High School and Madison



"Days of Wine and Roses" as depicted by the Juniors, won the Beauty Division.

Freshman girls use their imagination to decorate downtown store windows that advertise the MHS Homecoming. Pictured below is a winning window decoration.

The Freshmen enjoy their first attempt at float-building as they try to carry out the 1963 theme of "Colorama."

Highlights

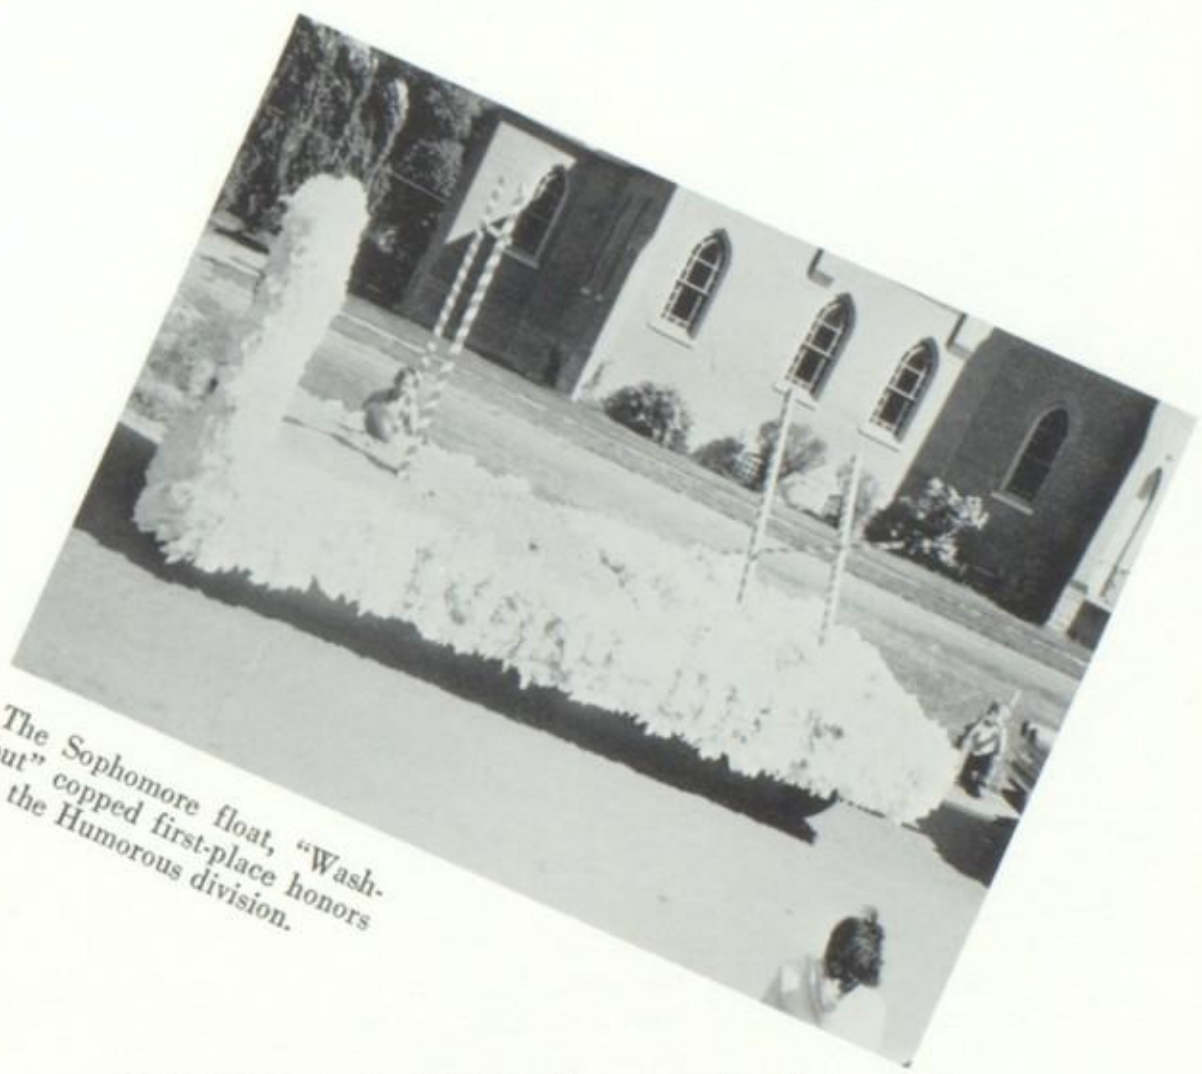
by a huge bonfire and pep rally.

Homecoming Day is celebrated by a pep meeting in the school, a parade, the Big Game, and a dance that follows the game. The 1963 Homecoming, the last one for the Class of '64, was a resounding success that will be hard to forget.

Central, won first place in Originality for the Freshmen.

Several Seniors work diligently to prepare the Royalty float, "Eighteen Yellow Roses," for the parade.

The Royalty Float "Eighteen Yellow Roses" carried the king and queen and the candidates.



The Sophomore float, "Washout" copped first-place honors in the Humorous division.

Central enoyed two bonfires this year. The first was lit by pranksters who were eager to join the festivities. The second was the biggest ever to be set afire in the history of the school.

The cheerleaders, Sue Rentz, Susette Beyer, Mary Palm, Pam Hanlon, inspire us to victory at the pep meeting.

The "A" squad is asked to take a bow for all the effort that they have put forth this year.

Here we see the student body rises as they sing the school song "Loyalty."

Linda Hess and Gay Lynn Johnson express togetherness as they do the last cheer.

Left—The Madison Community has helped to support their team with great enthusiasm throughout the year. Right—The Cheerleaders at last pep meeting.

Linda Hess and Tom Orton proudly accept the honor of becoming the Follies King and Queen.

Show Off Their Talents

Steve Balogh and Tom Blair, disguised as "John and Marcia," entertained the crowd with their hilarious antics. They were part of the senior skit titled "Senior Review."

Senior Alan Christensen served as Master of Ceremonies for the skits. His humor was enjoyed by all.

Mistress of Ceremonies for the Follies was Jane Johnson, a senior. She introduced the royalty candidates and revealed the identity of the king and queen.

Central's delegates to All-State Chorus entertained with selections from "The Wizard of Oz."

Mary Lou Olson, Robin Nelson, and Shalley O'Brien sang "Theme from Doctor Kildare" in the freshmen's skit.

Kathy Casey bemoans the death of her mother, Karen Neville, in "Tragedy at Ye Olde Sawmill."

Glad Tidings Are Brought

The Junior-Senior Girls' Glee under the direction of Marion Schroeder sang "Gloria In Excelsis Deo," "Beautiful Savior," and "Allelujah."

The Girls' Quartet consisting of Jeryl Lindstrom, Jane Johnson, Mary Palm, and Eileen Preuss sang "Three Provencal Carols" and "Drummer Boy."

Left—Central's Mixed Chorus sang "Do You Hear What I Hear," "Laudemus Te," and "Ding! Dong! Merrily on High" assisted by Greg Anderson and Gwen Flaum with percussion.

"Sweet Little Jesus Boy," a soprano solo, was sung by Jeryl Lindstrom.

Left—
"One World," "Hasten Swiftly," and "Go Tell it on the Mountain" were sung by the Freshman-Sophomore Girls' Glee Club.

A Junior Sextet containing Esther Hansen, Jeanne Van Den Hemel, Peggy Foley, Marcella Draper, Betty Van Den Hemel, and Jane Simmons sang "O Holy Night."

in Song and Spirit

Jeryl Lindstrom, Jane Johnson, Pam Hanlon, Mary Palm, Carol Norton, and Eileen, Preuss, a senior sextet, sing "Fum Fum Fum."

Right—Singing "What Child Is This" is the Junior ensemble consisting of Sharon Borchardt, Linda Hess, Judy Bohl, Cheryl Gutzman, Kay Amert, Barbara Nightser, Nancy Cole, and Pam Olson.

Not singing anything, but adding to the gaiety of Christmas by decorating a hall, is Central's Christmas tree.

The Senior quartet, containing Carol Kirkeby, Sandra Cole, Kendra Erickson, and Joanne Taylor, sing "A Joyous Christmas Song."

Sweetheart Ball Brings Romance

Barb Remes and Larry Saarheim were crowned Queen and King of Hearts at the Sweetheart Ball.

In February of 1964, the FHA of Central sponsored a Sweetheart Ball. A valentine theme was used for the semi-formal dance. The money earned from the dance was added to the FHA treasury.

The Chevelles provided the dancing music. Mike Hinde, a Central senior, is in the group.

Red and White decorations gave a holiday air to the Sweetheart Ball. Hearts and roses added to the Valentine theme.

A large crowd enjoyed the music of the Chevelles, and the dance floor was always filled.

Hillbilly Weddin' Displays Talent

Tom Blair, Terri Tomscha and David Knudson, dressed in their "finest" dudes, discuss how to marry off the "young un" in the all-school play "A Hillbilly Wedding."

Looking at Judy Groeneveld, Susan Rentz exclaims to Alan Christensen, "Ronald, why bother to talk to her? She looks like she hasn't washed for a month!"

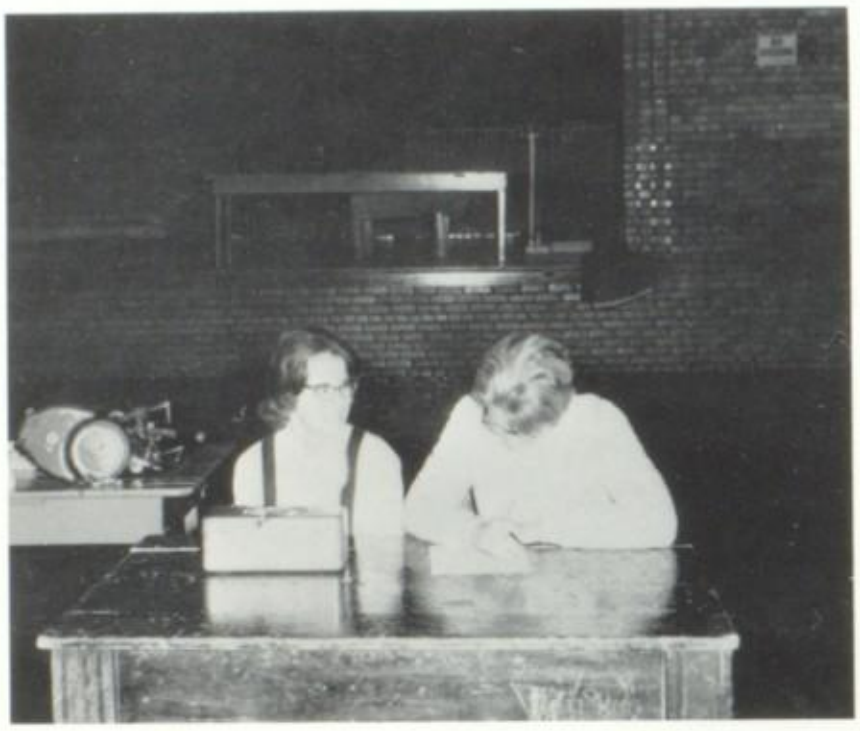
David Knudson, Eileen Preuss, Terri Tomscha, Veronica Schmaltz, and Joan Rook display their acting talent in the dim light of their "fashionable" hillbilly home.

Eileen Preuss and Judy Groeneveld shun with horror as David Knudson shouts, "You're gittin a husband dead or alive!"

School Events Draw Crowds

Alan Christenson, Gordon Johnson, David Knudson, Thomas Blair, and Joe Thompson are the auctioneers for the 1964 Polio Auction. "Grab bags!" "Going! Going! Gone!"

The student body turned out for the last annual signing party of "old" Madison Central High School.



The steadily increasing sum of money is carefully counted, then "stashed in the vault" for safekeeping by Carol Terry and Pamela Olson.

Four of the girls "plop" themselves down in any position and busily write their last memoirs in the annual.

"Come on, kids, wouldn't anyone like a new Sunday purse?" pleads Alan.

As the crowd gets smaller and smaller, so does the pile of annuals left to be handed out.

Students Participate With Vim and Vigor

The students enjoy several assemblies during the year that are sponsored by the various universities in this area. The programs are both educational and entertaining.

Mr. Cheesborough, represented the "Champion Sparkplug Co." and was introduced by the student body president, Gordon Johnson.

The Melody Masters, a Negro mixed quarter, presented a program of Negro spirituals for the assembly on January 14, 1964.

During intermission of a hypnosis act, we were entertained by a member of the cast of Virgil and Julie.

U.S. Deputy Sheriff Cochise presented an interesting inside look of Western T.V.

Mr. Tom Leckey, a local merchant, gives the students monogrammed blankets for sports.

Elks Parties Are Well Attended

On the third Monday of each month, the Madison Elks sponsored a dance from 8:00 till 10:00 for all Lake County high students.

The Elks Lodge ballroom was always filled with dancing students during Elks Parties.

Lunch was served to hungry students in the Lodge dining room.

Ping-pong, shuffleboard, and pool facilities were furnished to the students who did not care to dance.

Lodge members prepared and served a lunch of pop and hot dogs.

Ronnie Quam, Marcy Draper, and Peggy Foley are shown enjoying a game of cards, another activity furnished by the Elks.

Honors Distributed

Mr. James Peschong, annual advisor, presented the Watertown Public Opinion journalism award to Betty Schladweiler and Eileen Preuss, co-editors of the 1964 Interlakes.

Alan Christensen, Ronald Scovill, and co-editors Janene Schrader and Sandy Schmidt received journalism pins from Maroon staff advisor Mr. Hiaring.

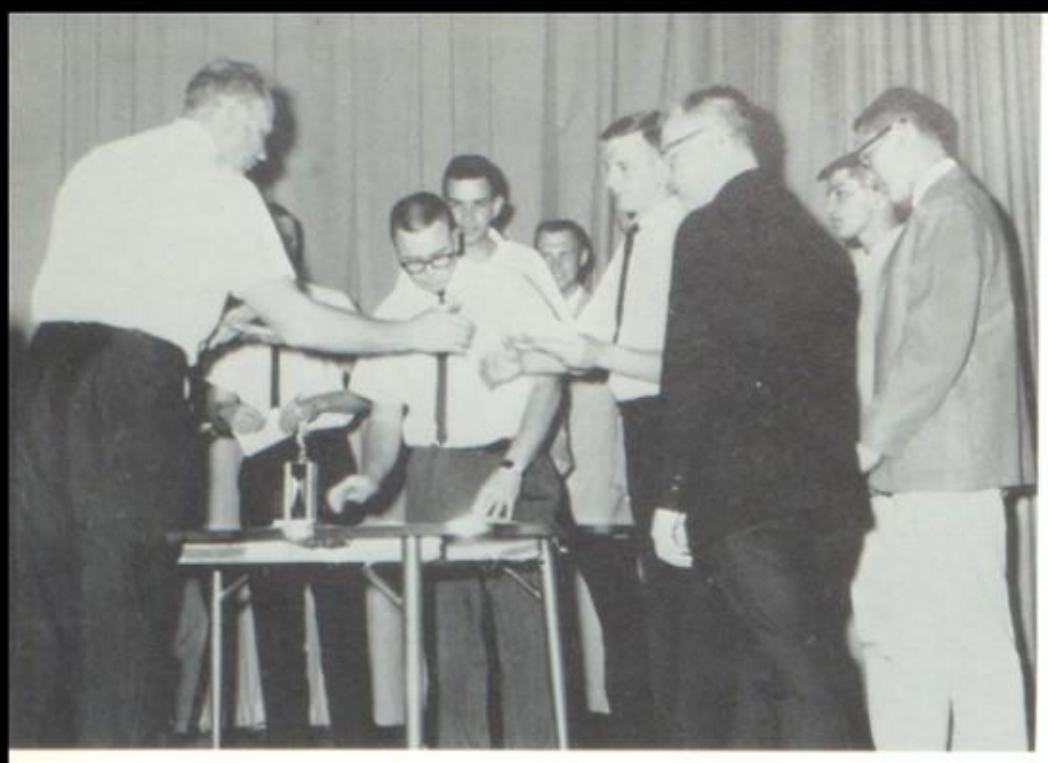
Four seniors who received college scholarships were Ronald Scovill, Jane Johnson, Diane Cockle, and Patty Krueger. Ronald, Diane, and Patty were commended for their high National Merit scores.

Mary Palm and Ronald Scovill received the "I Dare You Award," which was presented by Mr. Dockendorf.

Awards Night



Miss Marion Schroeder, director of vocal music, presented a music plaque to be displayed in the trophy case to the Principal, Mr. Southmayd. All Central entries received a Superior rating in the High School Music Contest.

Mr. Mathison and Mr. Barker handed out athletic awards to these boys: from left to right—Gordon Johnson, Roger Southmayd, Gary Bruns, Russel Johnson, Tom Orton, Bill Bulfer, and Tony DeGroot.

Agricultural director Norman Braun presented the FFA awards to the agricultural students.

Craig Smit, Central senior, received a trophy for his hard work in Central's wrestling program. He was presented the trophy by Mr. Frank Campbell.

An "Evening in Paris"

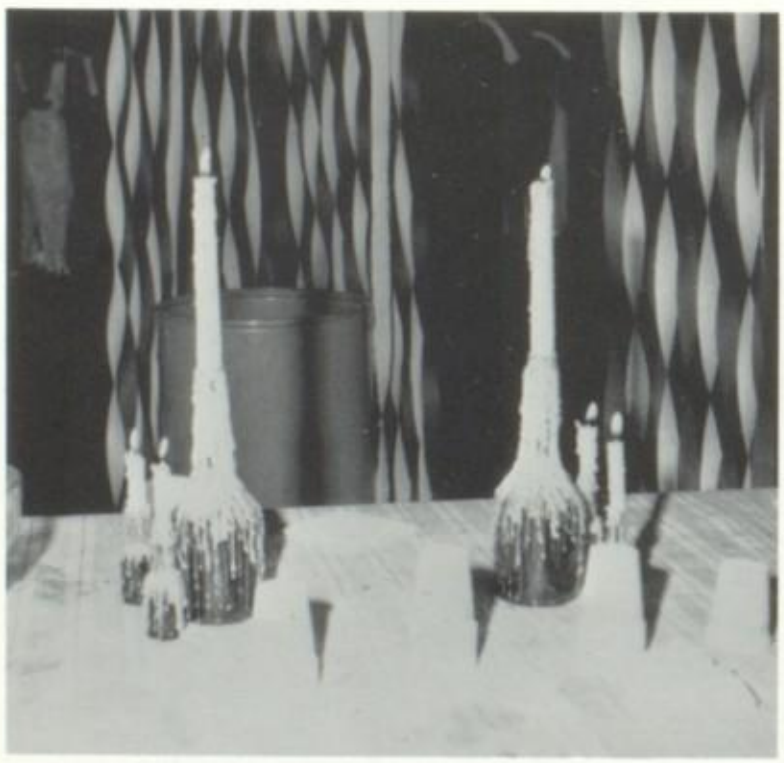
Tom Blair, senior class president, gave a farewell speech from the seniors and thanked the juniors for the grand banquet.

The class will of 1964 was read by Joan Rook at the Junior-Senior banquet.

Roger Southmayd, president of the junior class, was master of ceremonies.

Wayne Grad read the senior class prophecy.

After the delicious dinner, the students sat back and relaxed while waiting for the program to begin.



Through an outdoor Paris cafe, the juniors carried out the theme of "Evening in Paris."

The junior ensemble created the romantic mood of Paris with "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

Spent by Juniors and Seniors

A view of the entrance of the Prom shows that blue and white streamers were used to carry out the theme of "An Evening in Paris."

The Continentals provided music for dancing. Their songs varied from slow to very fast.

Many of the couples were on hand to enjoy the dancing that lasted from 9:00 to 12:00.

The Seniors enjoyed their last high school Prom and most of them stayed to keep the dance floor filled.

Serving the punch to thirsty dancers were these "French" sophomore waiters and waitresses.

Dependability, Responsibility, and Leadership

Glen Johnson, James Casler, Gary Nelson, Marvin Holcomb, and Roger Southmayd attended Boys' State at Northern State Teachers College. During the week they will study the fundamental principles of government. They will apply these principles in their own campaigns and elections held during their stay. The boys receiving this honor were chosen by the school faculty for their outstanding leadership and scholastic ability.

Pam Hanlon was Central's DAR representative this year. The Senior class made the nominations and the faculty selected the candidate from these nominees. She must have outstanding qualities in her church, school, and home life.

The Girls' Staters for 1964 are Carol Terry and Kay Amert. They studied government functions and ran for offices. Girls' State was held at Dakota Wesleyan in Mitchell.

Baccalaureate Held for Seniors

Thoughts of the future cross these students' minds at 1964 Baccalaureate.

Reverend Hovda was chosen to speak.

Here, Susan Rentz is impatiently waiting to march in.

Seniors sing with the mixed chorus for their last time.

Part of the entertainment at Baccalaureate consisted of songs sung by the Girls' Glee Club.

The Class of 1964

The 1964 graduates the girls in white gowns and the boys in maroon, march into the armory and take their seats.

The MHS band, directed by William Ireland, played "War March of the Priests," as an entry march for the graduates.

State's Attorney Jerry Lammers spoke on "What I Live For."

The "Big Moment" came at last. Here Roger Kappel receives his diploma from school board chairman Dr. Howard Wold as Superintendent Cockle looks on.

Prepares to Meet the World

Glen Wilbur presented Sharon Lunt with a Rotary Scholarship for one year at General Beadle.

Terri Tomscha receives the Student Council Speech Award for her outstanding work in speech.

On behalf of the Kiwanis, Marv Olson presented Lina Crusan with the Freshman Scholarship Medal.
